6.46 Provision of care
HELPUK

12 Do you look after, or give any help or support to family members, friends, neighbours or others because of:
• long-term physical or mental ill-health or disability, or
• problems related to old age?

◆ Do not count anything you do as part of your paid employment.
◆ time spent in a typical week.

☐ No
☐ Yes, 1 - 19 hours a week
☐ Yes, 20 - 49 hours a week
☐ Yes, 50+ hours a week

This question records whether a person gives any help or support to family members, friends, neighbours or others because of long-term physical or mental ill-health or disability, or problems related to old age.

Note that there is no specific reference to whether this care is provided within the household or outside the household. Therefore, no explicit link can be created to infer that the individual providing care is providing it to a person within the same household.

The variable records the time spent in a typical week.

Applicability: All people, UK
1 No care provided
2 1 – 19 hours
3 20 – 49 hours
4 50+ hours

☐ First Degree (eg BA, BSc) Other Qualifications (eg City and Guilds, RSA/OC, BTEC, General) No Qualifications
☐ Higher Degree (eg MA, PhD, PGCE, postgraduate certificate/diploma) No Qualifications

This is a multi-tick question asking the person to identify all qualifications obtained. In England and Wales, there is a separate question, which records teaching, nursing, medical and dental professional qualifications. These are described in a separate variable (see Qualifications, professional PQU(x)PEW). Respondents are asked to tick all boxes that apply.

During processing, the answers to the tick-boxes are held in a compound field consisting of 0s and 1s. In order to produce a ‘count’ of qualifications held, separate variables are provided on the final output database for each qualification group represented by each tick-box. Note that these variables might not produce accurate counts because, for example, people with 2+ A levels did not always also tick the box for 1+ A levels.

Different questions are asked in England and Wales, Scotland and Northern Ireland to reflect local requirements.

6.51 Relationship within household

RELATIONSHIP

This variable is based on the relationship question which asks the first 5 people in the household (6 in Northern Ireland) to provide information on their relationship with all previously numbered persons in the household. Persons 6 (Person 7 in Northern Ireland) and over are asked to identify their relationships with Persons 1 and the previous two people only.

During processing the responses to the question are held in a compound field that gives the relationship of that person to all other people in the household. Reciprocal relationships (that is those that are implied by a given relationship) are also held in this field. For example, person 2 is not asked to provide a relationship to person 3, but the relationship can be determined from the relationship to person 2 provided by person 3. The information is used to derive the family variables but is not directly used in standard output.

Applicability: All people in households, UK

1. Husband or wife
2. Partner
3. Son or daughter
4. Step-child
5. Brother or sister
6. Mother or father
7. Step-mother or step-father
8. Grandchild
9. Grandparent
10. Other related
11. Unrelated
12. Not applicable

Total number of categories: 12

Not applicable category (X) comprises:
Relationships that are not asked for, for example relationship of person 8 to person 3.

14 What religion, religious denomination or body were you brought up in?
☐ None
☐ Church of Scotland
☐ Roman Catholic
☐ Other Christian, please write in

☐ Buddhist
☐ Hindu ☐ Jewish
☐ Muslim ☐ Sikh
☐ Another Religion, please write in
These questions ask the person to record their religion. In Scotland there is a separate question asking for the religion the person was brought up in. In Northern Ireland, people who do not regard themselves as belonging to any religion are asked to record the religion they were brought up in. A write-in is provided where the person’s religion is not provided as a tick box response. A detailed list of codes was used to code the write-in responses for England and Wales and Northern Ireland. This list contains some codes, added during processing, which are only applicable in Northern Ireland. Write-in answers are not coded in Scotland.

Missing answers are not imputed so the classifications include a ‘not stated’ category.

The classifications used in standard output are:

England and Wales
- Christian
- Buddhist
- Hindu
- Jewish
- Muslim
- Sikh
- Other religions
- No religion
- Not stated

Scotland
- None
- Roman Catholic
- Other Christian
- Buddhist
- Hindu
- Jewish
- Muslim
- Sikh
- Another religion
- Not answered

Northern Ireland
- Catholic
- Presbyterian Church in Ireland
- Church of Ireland
- Methodist Church in Ireland
- Other Christian (including Christian-related)
- Other religions and philosophies
- No religion or religion not stated

The last category ‘No religion or religion not stated’ can be split into ‘No religion, with a religion brought up in stated’ and ‘Neither religion nor religion brought up in stated’ if requested as part of an ad-hoc request.

The group ‘Catholic’ includes those respondents who gave their religion as Roman Catholic, Catholic Apostolic Church, Ukrainian Catholic, Greek Catholic, Palmarian Catholic or Catholic.

Responses have been categorised as ‘Other Christian (including Christian-related)’ or ‘Other Religions and Philosophies’ on the basis of the best available information, although it is acknowledged that the categorisation of some of the smaller religions is open to interpretation.

In Northern Ireland a complete listing of all religious groups (with 10 or more adherents) is given in a standard table.
Detailed codes available for commissioned output are as follows. In Scotland, there was no coding of write-in answers. Write-in answers were coded to 'Other Christian' and 'Another religion' solely on the basis of which box was used. The additional codes available only in Northern Ireland are shown separately.

Using individual religion codes

Note 1: Users need to be aware that to get a complete number of adherents to a particular religious group they may need to collapse several codes, for example Free Presbyterian and Free Presbyterian Church of Ulster. This is due to several factors:

- Adherents to a particular religious group do not always label themselves identically;
- Lack of space required respondents to abbreviate the full title of their religious group. This was done in several different ways and often resulted in a more general term which could not accurately be assigned to one particular religious group; and
- The requirement for a common England, Wales and Northern Ireland index meant that while in Northern Ireland all Free Presbyterians are probably Free Presbyterian Church of Ulster, this may not be true in England as there may also be adherents of the Free Presbyterian Church of Scotland.

However, users must be aware that when collapsing codes, the two codes may not be identical. For example, the code Presbyterian does not only include respondents who just wrote Presbyterian but also Presbyterian USA and Presbyterian in NZ. Similarly, the code United Church is probably predominately United Church of Canada but may include other respondents.

Note 2: Apart from making it necessary to collapse categories, the use of abbreviations may have resulted in several respondents (possibly on the same form) who belong to the same religious group having been coded differently. This is particularly relevant to automatic coding where there is no human intervention. Examples include ‘Christian Fellowship Church’ coded as 029. If a respondent abbreviates this as ‘Christian Fellowship’ it would be coded as 028 and if it is abbreviated as ‘Fellowship Church’ it would be coded as 165. As ‘Christian Fellowship’ includes many other respondents apart from those belonging to this one denomination these codes cannot be collapsed.

This derived variable is created using information from the questions above, and the question on Hours worked HOUPUK and Employment type EMTPUK. The classification is based on the International Labour Office (ILO) definition of economic activity, and is an ONS harmonised survey classification.

As well as inevitable differences between a census and surveys, minor differences include the definition of part-time and full-time, and the sub-categorisation of economically inactive. For the Census, part-time is defined as working 30 hours or less, whereas for the harmonised output classification, part-time status is self-assessed. ‘In employment’ includes people on Government Sponsored Training Schemes.

The full classification given below provides detailed economic activity information for all economically active full-time students.

6.109 Social Grade, approximated SCGPUK

Social grade is a socio-economic classification used by the Market Research and Marketing Industries. Although it is not possible to allocate social grade precisely from information collected in the Census, the Market Research Society has developed a method for using Census information to provide a good approximation of Social Grade (see the Glossary in chapter 5).

Most output by social grade will be for people aged 16 and over in households. They will be classified by the social grade of their Household Reference Person (HRP). For households where the HRP is aged less than 16 or over 74 the social grade of people in the household will be determined by the household tenure. Table UV78, for the workplace population (people in employment whose usual place of work is in the area) categorises people by their own social grade based on their own occupation.

Applicability: Household spaces for which a dummy form is completed by the enumerator.

- 5 Vacant household space
